

Do NOT weaken the current NO CALL Laws. Telemarketing is one of the most offensive types of advertisement/sales. I don't appreciate getting calls at all hours on any day of the week at my home. If I need a good or service I don't need someone on the phone to let me know. The DO NOT CALL List does make a difference, and I feel it is a large way of protecting my privacy. Leave the current laws in place!